Are you someone who was baptized a Catholic but never received the Sacrament of First Communion and/or Confirmation?

Are you someone who has a family member or friend who is a Catholic and is interested in finding out more about the Catholic faith?

Are you someone who was baptized in a non-Catholic Christian faith and are now interested in converting to Catholicism?

Are you someone who was never baptized and would like to be a member of our Catholic Church?

If you are an adult (18 years or older) and you answered "Yes" to any one of these questions, then the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is for you.

The RCIA is a faith journey in which you deepen your relationship with God and make friendships with other candidates and team members through bible study, faith sharing, and learning about the teachings of the Catholic Church.

Adults are then fully initiated into the Catholic Church through the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil. If you are interested in participating in RCIA for this coming year, classes begin Sunday, October 9, from 9:15-10:45pm at the SPC.

For more information, please contact Janice Dagny at 610-857-0511 or the rectory-610-857-3510.

Feast of Pope St. John Paul II

Movie: Pope John Paul II

This epic film follows Karol Wojtyla's journey from his youth in Poland through his late days on the Chair of St. Peter. It explores his life behind the scenes: how he touched millions of people and changed the face of the Church and the world and how he defended the dignity of mankind.

Jon Voight's powerful, Emmy-nominated performance as John Paul II was widely praised, as was Cary Elwes as the young Karol. Shot on location in Rome and Poland in close connection with the Vatican, this is the definitive epic film on the life of Pope John Paul II.

The priests of tomorrow are in our midst.

They are members of this parish.

They are members of our own families.

Encourage Vocations, pray for the gift.

www.HeedTheCall.org

If your biographer were to ask about the parts of your morning routine how would you answer? Well, I take a shower? I brush my teeth? Whatever you would say, I hope it would include morning prayer. That's not only good but it's a great way to start the gift of a new day in your life.

Devout Jews in Our Lord's time observed two or three prayer times every day—in the morning and evening and sometimes at noon. Their prayer was held to be especially efficacious if it was offered in the Temple, so many people climbed the steps to the Temple courts to do their praying. That's where we find the two men in Jesus' story.

First, the Pharisee. He did not really go to pray to God but “with himself.” He went to inform God how good he was. He was giving himself a testimonial before God. Regarding fasting, he did more than the only obligatory one on the annual Day of Atonement. He wanted to gain the merit of fasting on the optional Mondays and Thursdays. Those were the market days when Jerusalem was crowded with country people. Those who were fasting whitened their faces and wore disheveled clothes, so on those two days they would have had the biggest audience for their chosen piety. (Recall what Our Lord said about washing one's face when fasting so that you won't appear to be fasting.) This man's whole attitude was the opposite of Our Lord's.

The tax collector “who stood afar off,” did not even lift his eyes to God. Humbly he prayed “O God, be merciful to me, a sinner.” Some scholars claim the better translation of the original is actually “O God, be merciful to me the sinner,” meaning “the sinner par excellence.” Either way, his prayer forms an acceptable act of contrition. And what does Jesus say of him? “This man went home justified.”

We can derive at least two unmistakable qualities of true prayer, no matter when in our day we do it:

(1) No one who is proud can pray. Recall the legend of the cave at Bethlehem. Its entrance was so low that one had to bend down to get to see the Infant Jesus. We must “bend down” from any position of pride to reach God in prayer.

(2) No one who despises others can pray. If there is someone in your life, be it a family member, neighbor, acquaintance, political figure, office holder, TV commentator, columnist, etc. etc., who is on your list of “detestables” you have to forgive them before praying. Period.

Once upon a time a traveler made a train journey to England. As he passed through Yorkshire he saw a little white-washed cottage that seemed to shine with an almost radiant whiteness. A few days later he made the journey back to Scotland. The snow had fallen and was lying deep all around. When he came again to pass the little white cottage, its whiteness seemed drab and dirty and almost grey in comparison with the pure whiteness of the driven snow. It all depends on with whom or what we compare ourselves. When we set our lives beside the life of Jesus and the holiness of God, all that is left to say, any time we pray is: “O God be merciful to me, a sinner.”

First Reading: Sirach 35:12-14; 16-18

Ben Sira warns against taking unfair advantage of the poor, the weak, orphans and widows. Why? Because they enjoy the special love and concern of the Lord, who always hears their cry.

Second Reading: II Timothy 4:6-8; 16-18

The author imagines Paul writing between trials, in his final days on earth. He recalls that God stayed faithful to him when others did not. More than that, he believes that God guarantees him a place in the heavenly kingdom for having “kept the faith.”

Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

Self-righteousness is condemned in the person of the Pharisee. He was not really praying but only boasting. His opposite number, the tax collector, was not only praying but also acknowledging his dependence on God's mercy.
