PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Good Shepherd image of our Lord is a very ancient and beloved one. The tender care and willingness of our Shepherd, Jesus Christ, to lay down His life for His sheep, is not only comforting, but is exactly what He does for us.

Unlike literal sheep, however, we know the risk that Jesus, our Good Shepherd takes for us.

There is another image offered to us today: Jesus says, "I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture." (Jn. 10:9)

Shepherds in Jesus' time would bring the flock into a corral usually made of stone walls for the night.

Sometimes there would be an actual gate, but more often than not, it would be just an opening. Often, the shepherd would keep sentry by positioning himself between the entrance, lying there in between the entrance of the two walls, essentially becoming the "gate."

No intruder or predator could enter that way unless they took on the shepherd.

Through His Passion, Death and Resurrection, Jesus has opened the gates to eternal life, and has become the Gateway to entering the Kingdom of God. He shepherds us, He protects us and through Him, we are led through the dark valley to be refreshed and nourished at His Banquet Table with Himself, Eucharist.

May we find our joy in the comfort and strength of the arms of our Good Shepherd, Jesus!

In Christ's Peace,
