Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

No less than 3 times in today's Gospel passage does Jesus tell His disciples to not be fearful. He also calls us to proclaim His words on the housetops, to announce in daylight what He whispers to us in darkness, and assures us that if we acknowledge Him before others, He will acknowledge us before the Father.

On a purely human level, who wouldn't be afraid to do this? But our faith transforms us from fear to trust in God and courage. Once we are convinced that we are never left alone, and that through God's loving care moves us forward, we are freer in our faith.

But this comes through our faith experiences, as God's grace and the help of the Holy Spirit build on us more and more, then we can testify to Him by whose death and resurrection we are saved.

We also need to remember that Fortitude or Courage is a gift of the Holy Spirit.

May this gift strengthen us in our relationship with God and to bear witness to Him to the world.

In Christ's Peace,

Fr. O'Neill
