"Love is not what you say. Love is what you do."

Here at the preschool, October is a packed month. We recently visited Cherry Crest Farm, it's one of our favorite annual field trips. Our 2 year old class is now in session and we are looking forward to holding Halloween/Fall Harvest parties. The children continue to learn about sharing, following directions, making "thumbs up" decisions, independent skills, and of course, letters, numbers, autumn, and fire safety. Our first fire drill is scheduled for this month.

Craft Fair

Make sure to mark Saturday, November 11 on your calendar for our fabulous Annual Holiday Craft Fair. There will be plenty of vendors....some new, some returning.

We will, of course, have yummy, homemade food. Don't forget to invite your family, friends and neighbors!

The Knights of Columbus want to thank everyone who donated blood at our recent blood drive on October 6. We collected 20 Units of blood which is estimated to save 60 lives.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Some inspiring words on the Kingdom of Heaven and its meaning for us and the world by Pope Benedict XVI. The "hope" that the world promises is really no hope at all, as the Holy Father states, because it does not have the power to give hope beyond this world. Only God can give us, through Jesus, this true and authentic hope, which comes to us in His Kingdom, which is not of this world.

In Christ's Peace,

Fr. O'Neill

"The Kingdom of Heaven is like..."

"The goal of Christian hope is the Kingdom of God, that is, the union of world and man with God through an act of divine power and love. The immediate aim that shows us the way and confirms the tightness of the ultimate goal is the perpetual presence of this love and this power that accompanied us in what we do and takes us up at the point where the potential of our own ability to act comes to an end..."

The aim of Christian hope...is a gift, the gift of love, which is given beyond all our activity: to vouch for the fact that this thing that we cannot control or compel and that is yet the most important thing for all human beings does exist, and that we are not clutching at thin air in waiting insatiably for it, we have the interventions of God's love in history, most powerfully in the figure of Jesus Christ in whom God's love encounters is in person.

But this means that the product of the promise of optimism is something that we must ultimately produce ourselves, trusting that the blind process of development in connection with our own activity will finally lead to the right goal. The gift of the promise of hope, on the other hand, is precisely that, a gift is something already bestowed, something we wait from him who alone can really give: the God who in the midst of history has already begun his age through Jesus.

This in turn means that in the first case there is in reality nothing to hope for, because what we are awaiting we must bring about ourselves, and nothing will be given us beyond what we can achieve ourselves. But in the second case real hope does exist beyond all our potential and possibilities, hope in the unbounded love that at the same time is unbounded power...

The hope of faith, in the other hand, reveals to us the true future beyond death, and it is only in this way that the real instances of progress that do exist become a future for us, for me, for every individual."

~Pope Benedict XVI

Congratulations Father Thomas Rossi, O. Praem
Gold Jubilarian

We are happy to share the good news of Father Tom Rossi's 50 years of ministry as a Norbertine priest. Eight of those years were shared here with the parishioners of Our Lady of Consolation Parish, where Father Tom celebrated many Sunday and weekly Masses as well as hearing our confessions. Father Tom's warmth and special down-to-earth ways will forever be in our hearts. Remember those little funnies that Father would use to start his homilies?

Father Tom's address and email address are listed below for anyone wishing to send Father a card or note on the occasion of his 50th Jubilee.
